

LOGO USAGE MANUAL

The logo consists of four elements:

- letter V
- word VEGA
- separating line
- abbreviation HPC
(High Performance Computer) below

When the basic logo cannot be used due to different limitations, the simplified logo version is used, consisting of the letter 'V' and the word 'VEGA'.

The smallest basic logo display size permitted is

60 x 34,5 mm

in the ratio

1 : 1,74

If a smaller size is required, the logo without the separating line and the abbreviation is used.

The smallest additional logo display size permitted is

20 x 8,65 mm

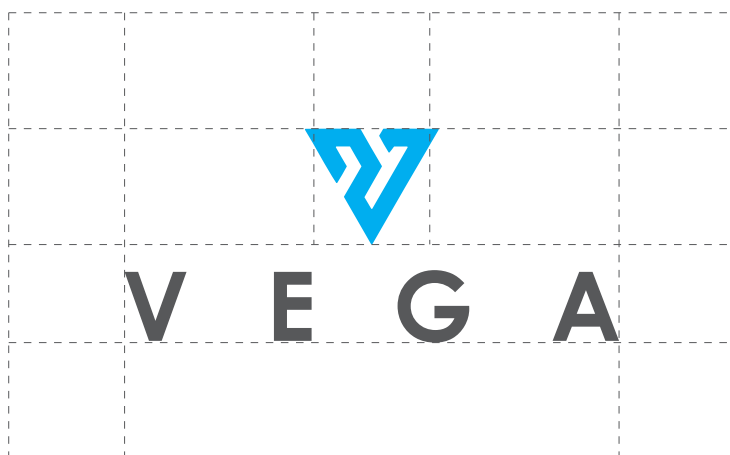

in the ratio

1 : 2,33

Deviation from the basic logo along all its sides depends on the size of the letter 'V' in the logo.

In the ratio 1 : 1, also the empty space along all the sides is increased/reduced by increasing/reducing the logo.

Deviation from the additional logo along all its sides depends on the size of the letter 'V' in the logo.

In the ratio 1 : 1, also the empty space along all the sides is increased/reduced by increasing/reducing the logo.

All the files sent are prepared in the appropriate ratio and with appropriate deviations.
